

ANNOUNCEMENTS for January 11, 2019

Parkersburg & Morgantown, WV and Athens, OH

Update 1/12/2018

Greetings:

Because of the snow storm which is already in the area, Sabbath Services in Athens-Parkersburg and Morgantown are cancelled.

All the best!

Bill Jahns

Greetings everyone:

Winter is really here and tomorrow there is the forecast of snow. If the weather is too difficult we will have to cancel services. According to the latest forecast I saw the snow will be starting in Parkersburg about 7:00 AM. It is predicted to snow throughout the day.

I understand that COGWA will not be moving to the new building until the middle of February. A notice was sent recently indicating this. Mr. Franks mentioned earlier that his experience with buildings is that they cost more than expected and take longer to finish than expected.

Until now you had to download One Accord from our website in order to read it. Starting this month One Accord will be mailed to each household in the church. This should help many who do not have access to the internet.

On Monday, January 14th, a Bible Study is scheduled at the residence of Jean Francis. Time: 1:00 PM

Cheryl and I plan to be in Belpre tomorrow.

Have a good Sabbath!

Bill Jahns

FOUNDATION INSTITUTE

The faculty and administration of Foundation Institute are excited to announce the dates of this summer's FI Continuing Education seminar. These weeklong seminars held each summer in the FI classroom have been very successful in providing an additional opportunity for biblical education for those who are able to attend. A number of people plan to return every year for the classes and fellowship.

This year we will be offering one seminar in the new building, which is in McKinney, Texas. The seminar will be five days long, beginning on Monday morning and ending on Friday afternoon. The dates are July 15-19, 2019. The seminar will offer 29 one-hour classes taught by a variety of instructors and administrators from the headquarters office. The cost for the classes is $75 per person or $125 per couple. As in the past, we plan to provide a light lunch each day at no additional charge.

Because of the move to the new building, we will not open registration until the month of February. This will allow us to ascertain the capacity of the classroom and know how many students we can accept, prior to registration. We will make a follow-up announcement explaining the registration procedure shortly after the office move is complete.

Thank you for your interest and support for Foundation Institute.

ONE ACCORD

From Clyde Kilough:

Since we began publishing One Accord, it has been available online and, for those who requested, in print. We have concluded, though, that probably a number of members and their children miss seeing some editions if they are depending on the online version. We certainly want everyone—all ages—to be able to keep up with the Church news, spiritual articles and announcements that are conveyed through One Accord. Therefore, since the expense is minimal for the value received, we are planning to automatically mail a print copy to all households in the U.S. We wanted to announce this in advance so that when you see a copy of the January 2019 issue arrive in your mailbox, you will know why! We hope you and your family will enjoy having this in hand.
