

ANNOUNCEMENTS

for August 23, 2019

Parkersburg & Morgantown, WV and Athens, OH

Greetings everyone:

As time goes by we see more and more signs of the instability of this world. It looks like the trade war with China is going to heat up in the next few weeks.

Also, we are getting closer to the time of the fall Holy Days. Thankfully, these days picture a time when peace will reign over the earth. All wars will eventually be stopped and men will learn to live together peacefully.

Last Sunday we enjoyed the picnic at the Travers. I learned that some are good cornhole game players in the congregation. The fellowship was good and we also enjoyed the good food.

Next month on September 14th, the Athens-Parkersburg congregation will be meeting Athens. See below for details on the Morgantown picnic this Sunday.

A Bible Study is scheduled at Kelly Steward's on Tuesday, August 27th. Time: 6:00 PM Also the Latrobe Street Mission project is scheduled for 5:30 PM Wednesday, August 28th.

Cheryl and I plan to be in Morgantown tomorrow.

Have a great Sabbath!

Bill Jahns
