

ANNOUNCEMENTS

for November 1, 2019

Parkersburg & Morgantown, WV and Athens, OH

Greetings everyone:

Cheryl and I returned home last Sunday after having a very good trip. The Feast of Tabernacles was great and we had a nice visit with our family in Salt Lake City. I plan to give an overview of the sermons we heard in Park City, Utah. It is a beautiful area and we enjoyed the train ride we took during the Feast.

Sadly, the world seems to be getting more violent and turbulent. Political fights and other problems are getting worse. Thankfully, the Bible shows there is a time of peace and prosperity coming after Christ returns.

Tomorrow, is the date of the Blessing of the little children. Please let me know if there are any of a young age who have not been blessed. We can do this at a later time if necessary.

Also, remember to turn back you clocks Saturday night as daylight savings time ends on November 3rd.

See below for announcements about Winter Camp and the Winter Family Weekend. The November calendar is also in an attached file.

Tomorrow a webcast is scheduled to come from Morgantown. Cheryl and I plan to be in Morgantown tomorrow.

Have a great Sabbath!

Bill Jahns
