

ANNOUNCEMENTS

for July 3, 2020

Parkersburg & Morgantown, WV and Athens, OH

Greetings everyone:

The coronavirus situation has worsened in the nation this week. Parkersburg was especially hit hard. It is important that we take steps to make sure that everyone is safe. It is good to wear face masks at church.

Next Tuesday Cheryl and I are scheduled to leave for Washington State. The memorial for my brother Chet is scheduled for Sunday, July 12th. We plan to return on Monday, July 13th. Hopefully, everything will work out fine.

There is no new information about the Feast of Tabernacles. The situation is being evaluated by the administration of the church.

A Bible Study is scheduled for Sunday, July 5th at Kelly Stewart's. Time: 2:00 PM.

Have a great Sabbath!

Bill Jahns

Pastor Morgantown & Athens-Parkersburg

Virtual Preteen Camp (VTC) Announcement

All aboard the S.S. Virtual Teen Camp Program! We are pleased to announce that we will start taking applications at 9 a.m. Central time on Sunday, July 5. The link to applications will be available from the top of the camp website home page: camps.cogwa.org/. We welcome applications from any teenager who is interested in embarking on a weeklong virtual expedition (beginning on Sunday, July 26) to learn what it means to be firmly anchored in God's Word.

Please note: Since we will be collecting personal contact information for minors, we must also have the contact information for a parent or guardian to obtain a release for that information.

There will be four regions to select from during the application process: West, Central, Southeast and Northeast. Each camper should apply for a first and a second option since we are limited in the size for each group. The program will feature daily Compass Checks, Christian Living classes, a Bible Q&A, online activities and, of course, opportunities for fellowship.

Since we know some of our teens have summer jobs, a link to the Compass Checks will be sent each day over social media along with a daily Bible verse and a reminder of what's coming that evening. Christian Living classes, the Bible Q&A and fellowship opportunities via Zoom breakout rooms will be available each evening at times that are convenient based on each group's time zone. To cap off the week, we will be webcasting an "end of camp" Sabbath service on the Sabbath of Aug. 1, starting at 12 noon Eastern (9 a.m. Pacific).

"Deck hands" needed

Just as we would if we were hosting an in-person camp, we are asking for "all hands on deck!" We are particularly in need of experienced young adult camp staff members. If you are interested in assisting with the day-to-day operations of the virtual program—working with technology, acting as a breakout room moderator, assisting with social media postings, etc., we encourage you to submit a staff application and mark your area(s) of preference. We acknowledge the contributions camp personnel have made in the experiences of our campers, and we appreciate in advance your willingness to serve.

We look forward to "sail-ebrating" good times with all of you!!
