

ANNOUNCEMENTS

for July 10, 2020

Parkersburg & Morgantown, WV and Athens, OH

Greetings everyone:

I am presently in Washington State on the farm. The memorial for my brother Chet is scheduled for this Sunday at 2:00 PM.

The coronavirus situation continues to get worse. The governor of West Virginia, Jim Justice is now requiring face masks to be worn in all public buildings. This means that those attending in Morgantown will have to wear masks. If you don't have one, Dave Beilstein will have one at the door. In Athens, wearing masks is encouraged, but not required.

See below for the latest announcement about the "Virtual Teen Camp." The latest member letter is in the attached file.

I am schedule to return home on Monday, July 13th.

Have a good Sabbath!

Bill Jahns

Virtual Preteen Camp (VTC) Application Deadline

S.S. Virtual Teen Camp is now boarding! Please apply now (if you haven't already) at the COGWA's Youth Camp page.

Applications began coming in on Sunday, July 5, and we are anxious to assign you a spot. Before we can do so we need to see how many we need to accommodate so we'll know if we need all four groups. Therefore we will be closing the application system on Sunday, July 19, and will notify everyone what group they are in the next day.

Parents, you don't want your teen to miss the boat and not gain a deeper understanding of this year's Christian Living theme as we all enjoy virtual fellowship with fellow teens during this weeklong event! All sessions will be scheduled in the evenings of the various time zones to avoid conflicting with normal work hours. Be sure to register ASAP and sign the waiver allowing us to have your teen's contact information to keep everyone up on what's happening each day
