

ANNOUNCEMENTS

for November 20, 2020

Parkersburg & Morgantown, WV and Athens, OH

Greetings again:

We are a little less than a week from Thanksgiving. I had hoped that by this time the COVID-19 problem would be over. But it looks still like a solution is months away.

Let's always keep in mind the guidelines for staying safe. Wear masks when required and wash your hands often.

Thanks for your faithfulness and loyalty to God's word. The attendance when including those online is even more than normal. The income of the church is doing well. We know that in the end, God's Kingdom is the only solution to the problems that we see today.

Cheryl and I will be staying home this week for the first time on Thanksgiving in many years. While we were in South Africa there was no observance of Thanksgiving there.

I plan to be Morgantown tomorrow.

Bill Jahns

Pastor Morgantown & Athens-Parkersburg

FRIDAY NIGHT LIVE

Join us this Friday evening, Nov. 20, for our “Friday Night Live” webcast Bible study, which will begin at 8 p.m. Eastern Standard Time (7 p.m. Central, 6 p.m. Mountain and 5 p.m. Pacific).

This month’s study, presented by Clyde Kilough is titled, “Conquering Mount Kataphroneo.” Most young adults in the Church have a sense—perhaps consciously, but often unconsciously—that they must conquer a big obstacle at that stage of their lives. Let’s call it Mount Kataphroneo (for reasons that will be explained). In this edition of Friday Night Live we will tackle this issue in an uncharacteristic way—Clyde Kilough will introduce the subject then moderate a discussion with several young adults about their experiences in meeting this challenge.

Please plan to join Clyde Kilough and his young adult guests for this study this Friday evening, Nov. 20, at 7 p.m. Central time, for Friday Night Live.
